An interconnected grid enhances system reliability, security, affordability and resilience on both sides of the border.

Sources: C2ES, Energy Information Administration, Statistics Canada, National Energy Board (Canada)